Where words fail, music speaks.
Hans Christian Anderson

If a picture speaks a thousand words, then the opening of this 1979 Valhalla, must speak for itself. Although a problem that an Editor is always confronted with is that of choosing a theme, one of the hardest problems is coming up with an opening that reflects theme, and school life. This is a particularly distressing problem when you think of the amount of space, and the amount of time that is given this task.

Hopefully you will enjoy looking through these pages and remember the "times of your life."

In an effort to escape from the difficulties of yearbook work, Editor Rick Lyman and Photographer Ron Stark fled to the deepest parts of the Amazon River, where none of the yearbook staff or photo staff could follow them. However an unknown photographer managed to trail them and come back with these photos showing them in a relaxed mood. He reported they are in good health and they have no intentions to return. They did, however, send their resignation notices:

Although I didn't want to return to Sunnyslope, I now have no choice, for my legs have been considerably shortened by Pyranahs.

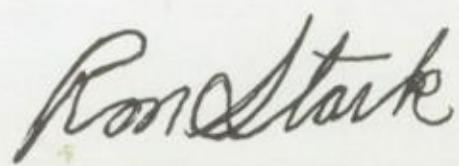

Respectfully submitted;

Rick Lyman, Ed.

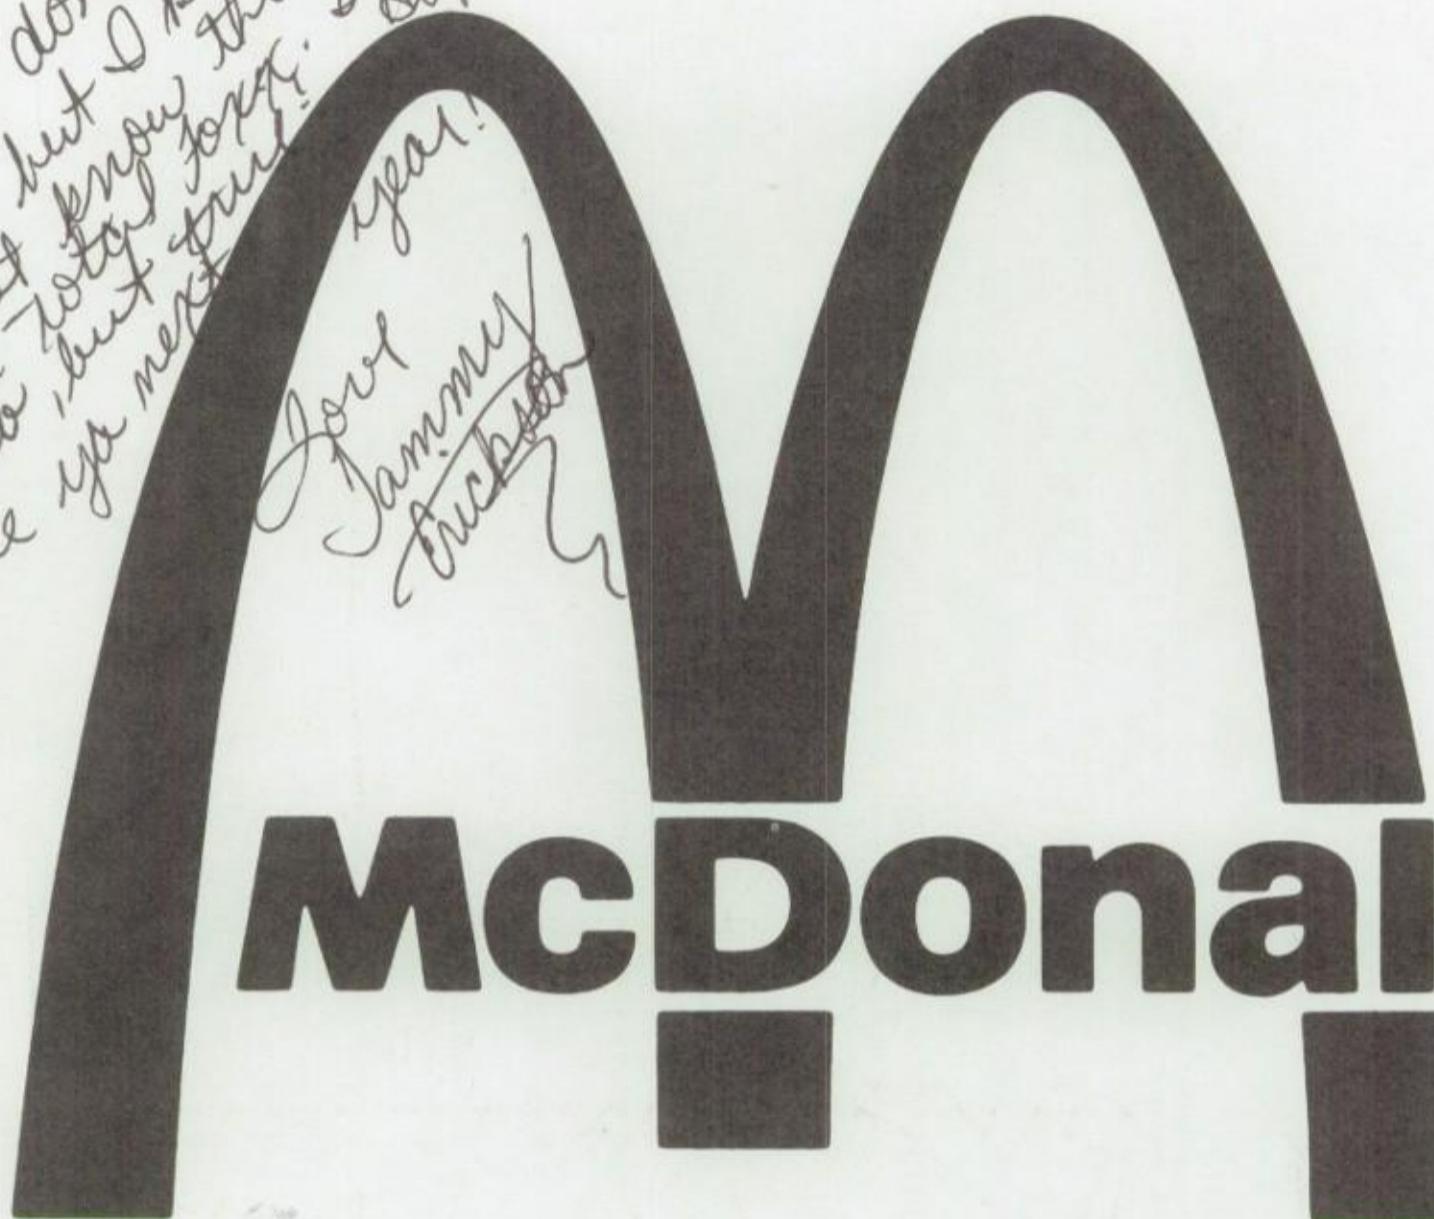

Having served on the Photo staff for the past three years I now wish to resign my position with much regret.

YOur Gas Smells!

Properly used, natural gas is clean and safe. In its natural state, it's odorless. However, a smelly odor is added to warn you when something's wrong. A faint odor warns you to check equipment. Are kitchen range burners turned off? Are pilot lights burning? If odor is strong, don't ignite a flame or operate light switches. Open windows and doors. Evacuate the building and call your gas company immediately.

Dougie,

It was a lot of fun in Chemistry at the beginning of the year until you dropped out. I guess Vice Presidents just can't handle those little classes. Right? Just don't forget your old friends when you get to the top. Okay. I don't know about you but I had a really good time at St. Lakes. We'll have to do it again sometime. We can get some partying in this summer in San Diego. A lot better than last year. You'll have to come over skippy dipping right? Well give me a call this summer alright. We can go to another exciting Beophy party.

Hey guy! This year has gone by ~~so~~ fast! Thanks for being such a great friend. I had a blast when you took me out. You are so much fun to be with. I'll never forget the "cop Chase"! I didn't even know that you guys were faking me out! hehe! I had a blast that night! Good luck next year in commercial art and possibly in a career! I know your talent will take you far! Please call me this summer - ok? P93-7188!

Maybe we could round up the gang and go to the lake or river or something! Thank you for being so kind and understanding! I love you for it, Doug.

Take it easy!
